Local Stores to Compete For Best-Looking Windows

In keeping with the Christmas spirit in downtown Torrance, merchants will again dress up their windows in their holiday-best as part of the fifth annual window-decorating contest sponsored by the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Announcement of the contest was made this week by Bob Waddell, contest chairman, who will be assisted by Bob Waters and Herb Clark.

Stores will be classified according to three categories according to available window space and store frontage, thus permitting small shop owners an equal opportunity to win.

In addition, there will be a special animated class.

The winner of each group will be awarded a beautiful, engraved plaque. A sweepstake winner will be chosen from the winners in the four classifications. The sweepstake winner will receive a perpetual trophy to be kept by that merchant until next year's winner is announced.

Last year's sweepstake winner was John's Paint store, 1413 Cravens ave.

Judging will be done by the Junior Chamber, based on the most attractive portrayal of the Christmas spirit, with ingenuity and originality rating ahead of the nature of the commodity being sold.

Winners will be announced Friday, December 16.

The twins were born to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ridge who were living at 3346 Dalemead. The father was 23 years old when the twins were born.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gallinger, of 1415 W. 225th St., announce the birth of a son, Timothy Glenn weighing 8 pounds and 7 ounces.
